WAGES TO A PAUPER STANDARD.

The ultimate result of a triumph of Radicalism will be despotism—the few to govern, the many to obey. The ballot-box corrupted and debased with negro ballots into a mere tool for demagogues, will be powerless for good: the taxes wrung from the people by a horde of revenue officials with armed soldiery at their back, will be used to buy power and corrupt the weak; whilst wages for labor will fall to the pauper standard of Europe. Every day of Radical rule brings still closer this disastrous consummation. Laboring men's incomes are not proportionate to the prices of the necessaries and comforts of life. Wages are mostly [illegible] what they were in [illegible] times, and [illegible] as much, meat three to four times, butter from four to six times, and other things in pretty much the same proportion. The poor are rendered poorer, while the rich are made richer. Capitalists unite their wealth and not control the labor market, but they buy legislatures and control government. Public officials and lawmakers no longer regard themselves as public servants, but as rulers. Members of the Legislature and of Congress look to the capitalists for election and have no constituents but those who wield the power of wealth. The working masses may band themselves together to secure adequate wages for their toil, but capital makes common cause against them, and they are forced to succumb. They may select men to make laws for their benefit, but banded capital steps in and buys their legislators. Look on the statute books of your State and deny this fact, if you can.

Thus every year of Radical domination in State and federation shows an alarming downward tendency of workingmen's interests and prospects. New offices are created; salaries are raised; appropriation bills are swelled to gigantic proportions; fresh taxes are added, and the whole bill of expenses eventually comes down to be worked out by the toiling masses. How long will it be, under these dreumstances, before the European pauper standard of wages is reached? How long before animal food will disappear from the workingman's table except at holiday times, and until children scarcely out of infancy will be forced into the stifling atmosphere of mills and factories to help eke out the scanty subsistence of the household? We ask the workingmen of Pennsylvania to ponder these things. We ask them to compare the present with the past, and judge thereby of the future under the measures and political policies of the now dominant party.—Patriot and Union.

THE RELIGIOUS CARD PLAYER.

A private soldier, by the name of Richard Lee, was taken before the magistrates of Glasgow for playing cards during divine service. The following account is given:

A sergeant commanded the soldiers at the church, and when the parson had read the prayer, he took the text. Those who had a Bible took it out, but the soldier had neither Bible nor common prayer book, pulled out a pack of cards and spread them before him. He first looked at one and then another The sergeant of the company seeing him said—

"Richard, put up the cards; this is no place for them."

"Never mind that," said Richard.

When services were over, a constable took Richard prisoner, and brought him before the Mayor.

"Well," said the Mayor, "what have you brought the soldier here for."

"For playing cards in church."

"Well, soldier, what have you to say for yourself?"

"Much, sir, I hope."

"Very good; if not I will punish you severely."

"I have been," said the soldier, "about six weeks on the march. I have neither Bible nor common prayer book. I have nothing but a pack of cards, and I hope to satisfy your worship of the purity of my intentions."

Then spreading the cards before the Mayor, he began with the ace.

"When I see the ace it reminds me that there is but one God.

"When I see the deuce it reminds me of Father and Son.

"When I see the tray it reminds me of Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

"When I see the four it reminds me of the four evangelists that preached—Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

"When I see the five it reminds me of the five wise virgins that trimmed their lamps; there were ten, but five were wise and five were foolish and were shut out.

"When I see the six it reminds me that in six days God made heaven and earth.

"When I see the seven it reminds me that on the seventh day God rested from the great work which he had made and hallowed it.

"When I see the eight it reminds me of the eight righteous persons that were saved when God destroyed the world, viz: Noah and his wife, his three sons and three wives.

"When I see the nine it reminds me of the nine lepers that were cleansed by our Saviour; there were nine out of ten who never returned thanks."

"When I see the ten it reminds me of the ten commandments which God handed down to Moses on the tables of stone.

"When I see the King it reminds me of the Great King of Heaven, which is God Almighty.

"When I see the queen it reminds me of the Queen of Sheba, who visited Solomon, for she was a woman as he was a man. She brought with her fifty boys and fifty girls, all dressed in boy's apparel, for King Solomon to tell which was which.

"He sent for water for them to wash. The girls washed to the elbows and the boys to the wrist, so King Solomon told by that."

"Well" said the mayor, "you have described every card in the deck except one."

"What is that?"

"The knave," said the mayor.

"I will give your honor a description of that too, if you promise not to [illegible]

"I will not if you do not term me the knave."

"The greatest knave I know of is the constable that brought me here before you."

"I do not know," said the mayor, "if he is the greatest knave, but I know he is the greatest fool."

"When I count how many spots there are in a pack of cards, I find three hundred and sixty-five, as many days as in a year.

"When I count the number of cards in a pack, I find fifty-two, the number of weeks in a year.

"I find there are twelve picture cards in a pack, representing the number of months in a year, and on counting the tricks I find thirteen, the number of weeks in a quarter of a year.

"So you see a pack of cards serves as an almanac, Bible, and common prayer book."

A SINGULAR AND TERRIBLE STORY.

[Tangipahoa (La.) Cor. Cin. Enquirer.]

Soon after General Hancock took command Gen. Mower was ordered to Ship Island in command of a negro battalion. He was soon there joined by his family, one of which was a daughter of about seventeen years, very interesting and accomplished. Always brought to believe that a negro was as good as a white man, and in many things superior, she of course thought it no harm to encourage the advances of one of the ebony race.

Accordingly she saw and admired one of the soldiers of her father's command. Clandestine meetings were had, and so progressed from one step to another, until at last the colored visitor is discovered occupying the same couch with her, where, rumor says, he had been for ten consecutive nights. General Mower arrested the offending negro, and without trial sentenced him to be hung. Preparations were made immediately, and while the rope was around his neck, behold the whole negro battalion broke out in mutiny, and released the prisoner, seized Gen. Mower, and under pain of death extracted from him an oath not to ever hereafter trouble their comrade, or ever mention this occurrence to a living soul—after which the General was released. Subsequently, it was discovered that these interviews had been kept up for two or three months previous; and to add horror to horror, the daughter was discovered to be in an interesting condition, since which time the General has brought her to the city. We can judge for what purpose.

I do not vouch for the truthfulness of the above. I give it to you as I received it—a rumor—but one that is generally believed.

But now for the contrast. About the time Gen. Sheridan was relieved a negro was tried in Carrolton, Jefferson county, Louisiana, and convicted before the District Court of rape on a white girl and sentenced to be hung. The sentence was submitted to Sheridan for approval, and his reply was: "I can see no reason why the sentence of the Court should not be executed."—This was about the time he took his leave, and the papers were left with Mower, who afterward revoked Sheridan's approval and the sentence of the Court, and ordered the negro to be imprisoned for ten years instead of being hung. Many at that time, were the prayers that justice might overtake him (Mower), and if the story of his daughter be true, justice certainly has followed him.

NIGGER BY BREVET.—A western paper proposes that, inasmuch as we have in the army brevet generals, brevet colonels, &c., and as things are rapidly tending to the debasement of the white man to a level below the darkey, it may become necessary for Congress to provide for the rank of brevet nigger, or niggerly brevet. There is some force in this suggestion, and, however lightly the reader may esteem it, there is a really practical illustration of it. During the war the quartermaster's department paid negro teamsters with the army twenty-five dollars a month and rations, whilst the white soldiers of the North were obliged to perform the same work at sixteen dollars a month—the ordinary pay of an enlisted man. It is said of an Illinois soldier, who was put to mule driving, that he sent a written application to his captain asking to be promoted to "nigger by brevet," so that nine dollars a month should be added to his pay, with the right to steal without being subject to punishment according to army regulations.

AN OLD STORY.

Many years ago a celebrated Italian artist was walking along the street of his native city, perplexed and desponding in consequence of some irritating circumstance or misfortune, when he beheld a little boy of such surprising and surpassing beauty that he forgot his own trouble and gloom in looking upon the almost angel face before him.

"That face I must have," said the artist, "for my studio. Will you come to my room and sit for a picture, my little man?"

The little boy was glad to go and see the pictures and pencils and curiosities in the artist's room; and he was still more pleased when he saw what seemed to be another boy looking just like him smiling from the artist's canvas.

The artist took great pleasure in looking at that sweet face. When he was troubled, or irritated, or perplexed, he lifted his eyes to that lovely image on the [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] between his era and ours.

THE OLDEST RELIC OF HUMANITY.

The oldest relic of humanity extant is the skeleton of one of the earlier Pharaohs, incased in its original burial robes, and wonderfully perfect, considering its age, which was deposited about eighteen or twenty months ago in the British Museum, and is justly considered the most valuable of archæological treasures. On the lid of the coffin which contained the royal mummy, was inscribed the name of its occupant, Pharaoh Mykerinus, who succeeded the heir of the builder of the great pyramid, about ten centuries before Christ. Only think of it! the monarch whose crumbling bones and lethargy integuments are now exciting the wonder of numerous gazers in London, reigned in Egypt before Solomon was born, and about eleven centuries or so after Mizraim, the grandson of old father Noah, and the first of the Pharaohs had been gathered to his fathers! Why, the tide-mark of deluge would scarcely have been obliterated, or the gopher-wood knee timbers of the ark have rotted on Mount Ararat when this man of the early world lived, moved, and had his being! His flesh and blood were contemporary with the progenitors of the great patrician!—His bones and shriveled skin are contemporary with the nineteenth century, and the date of the crucifixion is only

THE TEETH OF A HORSE.

At five years of age a horse has forty teeth—twenty molar or jaw teeth, twelve incisor front teeth, between the molars and incisors; but usually wanting in the mare.

At birth only the two nippers or middle incisors appear.

At a year old the incisors are all visible on the first or milk set.

Before three years the permanent nippers have come through.

At four years old the permanent dividers next to the nippers are cut.

At five the mouth is perfect, the second set of teeth have been completed.

At six the hollow under the nipper called the mark, has disappeared from the nippers and diminished in the dividers.

At seven the mark has gone from the dividers, and the next teeth or corners, are level, though showing the mark.

At eight the mark has gone from the corners, and the horse is aged. After this time, indeed, good authorities say that after five years, the age of the horse can only be conjectured. But the teeth gradually change their form, the incisors becoming round, oval and triangular. Dealers sometimes bishop the teeth of old horses; that is, scoop them out to imitate the mark; but this can be known by the absence of the white enge of the enamel which always surrounds the real mark, by the shape of the teeth, and other marks of age about the animal.

PROPHECIES OF MR. CLAY AND MR. CALHOUN.

In 1843, Henry Clay, who led the Whig hosts in the campaign of 1844, made the following prophecies:

The agitation of slavery in the free States will,

1st. Destroy all harmony.

2d. Lead to division.

3d. To poverty.

4th. To war.

5th. To the extermination of the black race.

6th. To ultimate despotism.

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

"TAKING THE OATH."

No one has yet forgotten sarcastic witticisms of Artemas Ward, Orpheas C. Kerr, and other humorists of the war, or the facility with which all sorts of test oaths were administered to captured rebels and the flippant contempt with which they were afterwards violated. The easy nonchalance with which such Senators as Chandler, Cattell, and Ben Wade sauntered up to the Chief Justice and took a solemn oath to decide impartially might form companion pictures to those of Artemas Ward, did not a feeling of horror take the place of amused indifference, in contemplating the fearful consequences of this Senatorial perjury. There is nothing which so clearly marks the depravity of an age or a nation as the contempt in which is held the sanctity of an oath. Since the accession of the Radicals to power, and their thousands of oaths for inspectors, guagers, assessors, detectives; since the perjuries of Baker, Conover, and hosts of dilators, the virus starting in the lowest strata of the party has ascended through all grades of official life, until it has reached at last the highest seats in the Senate.

To the Democratic party alone the people can look for a restoration of the government to the pure condition of the past. The Democratic party is the party of law, order and religion; and its career has been illustrated by the best instances of purity and probity in official life. The reign of Radicalism has produced lawlessness, violence, anarchy, military despotism, the silence of the tribunes, decay in public morals, and unbounded profligacy in political life.

THE IMPEACHMENT FARCE.

At last the Impeachment trial is at an end. The evidence and the speeches are before the Senate. As to the former, it shows nothing concerning the President, except that he desired to place in his cabinet an officer with whom he could have confidential relations, in the room of one who had insulted and defied him, that he inquired of General Emory what disposition had been made of the troops around Washington, and that he made a couple of speeches, in reply to calls from his fellow citizens, which speeches were not very complimentary of the Rump Congress. This is the whole case made out by the impeachers against the President. Only this and nothing more. Is there anything in it which makes Mr. Johnson "worthy of death or bonds?" The people will say NO! even though perjured partizan Senators should dare to say Yes. If Andrew Johnson is guilty of "high crimes and misdemeanors," because he attempted to remove an odious cabinet officer, or because he asked Gen. Emory what disposition had been made of the troops about the capital, or because he made a political speech in which he sharply criticised Congress, then John Adams was guilty of the same "crimes and misdemeanors" when he removed Mr. Pickering, then James Buchanan was similarly guilty when he removed the rebel Floyd and appointed the loyal Holt, then the men who condemn Andrew Johnson for merely exercising his constitutional rights, as the occupant of the Executive office, had better draw the bones of Andrew Jackson from the grave and hang them upon a gibbet, because he, as President of the United States, seized the deposits in the United States Bank in defiance of Congress as well of the decree of the Supreme Court. They had better, too, go to Springfield, and like ghouls, as they are, dig up the dust of Lincoln, in revenge upon him for his repeated and undisputed usurpations of power. The case against the President is too bald and bare, too flimsy and transparent, too contemptible and ridiculous, to compare it with anything of a similar character in all the annals of State trials. His conviction upon such evidence, will inevitably return to plague those who condemn him, and will sink into certain perdition the party that attempts to support it.—As to the speeches, Butler's was nothing but blackguardism, Boutwell's bluster, Stevens' rant and Bingham's denunciation. On the other hand, it must be acknowledged, even by the bitterest of the impeachers, that the speeches of Groesbeck, Evarts and Stanbery, are masterpieces of logic and legal learning. Thus stands Impeachment. With neither evidence, nor argument, on the side of the President's accusers; with the Constitution and the Right, with Law and Logic, on the side of the President; how can conviction and removal receive the endorsement of the moral sentiment of the people? It is impossible! Impeachment and impeachers will be consigned to outer darkness, where there shall be "weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth!"

THE bill for the admission of Africanized Arkansas passed the House, on last Saturday, by an almost strict party vote. Members on both sides admitted that they had never read the so-called constitution of that State, and the Democrats protested earnestly against hurrying it through, but Thad. Stevens, the master rider of the House of Representatives, with whip and spur drove the clowns of the radical ring into the measure; the bill was passed and sent to the Senate for its action. This is but the beginning of the end. This is to be the fate of all the Southern States. All the States to be reconstructed, whether their constitutions were adopted by the requisite number of votes, or whether the people saw fit to reject the bogus amalgamation constitutions made to order by a Radical Congress, are to be "put through" according to this latest Washington style. The reason for this is apparent. The Radicals are desirous to have United States Senators from those States and thus perpetuate their power in the Senate. They are afraid of public opinion, as expressed at the polls, and know that their doom is fixed, when, at the coming elections, the people will be called upon to choose their representatives in the House. They will go any length, therefore, to secure more power in the Senate, which they expect to hold for some years to come and thus prevent the repeal of the odious laws which they have enacted. But they will be frustrated in their plans. The pent up wrath of a liberty and justice loving people will ere long break forth and drive the whole gang of traitors from the high places which they have beslimed with their treachery and treason, so that the place that knows them now, shall know them no more forever. And that day is not far distant.

THE BATTLE, THE BATTLE-FIELD AND THE CANDIDATE.

The great issue of the pending conflict is, shall the Government created by the Constitution be perpetuated, or shall it be supplanted by a centralized organism? Subordinate to this and connected therewith are the questions of reconstruction, of negro supremacy and of national finance. Radical leaders see in these the means to the attainment of their great end. States are coerced into the support of this project; negro votes are valueless but for this object, and patronage and place, banks, treasury and financial agencies are made to lend their powerful influence to the preservation of Radical rule, to the centralization of the Government and the overthrow of the Constitution. The battle to be waged involves the vitality of our institutions.

The battle-field in this great struggle, is Pennsylvania. In Presidential contests for seventy years, the Keystone has invariably voted with the majority. Her vote in October has always been the certain precursor of her verdict in November. Success in October is invariably followed by success in November; defeat in October is the herald of defeat in November. Her voice in October is potential with other Commonwealths, for New York and New Jersey usually follow her lead, and always show sympathetic action. Our victory in October, 1867, swelled the majorty in New York in November. To lose the October election, is to lose Pennsylvania. The loss of Pennsylvania is the loss of the battle. The loss of this battle is the destruction of the Government. Here is our Thermopylæ; the "ides" of October determine our destiny. To win this contest every energy should be bent; to insure success every extraneous aid should be yielded us; to compel this victory our brethern everywhere should aid us.

The action of the New York Convention in its selection of a candidate, will be potent in its bearings for good or evil upon our cause, in October, and that great party "tribunal of the last resort" should heed the voices of our counselors, and attentively ponder the views of the leading men of our delegation. Pennsylvania is uncommitted to a candidate. She will sacrifice to success everything but principle. We believe that her delegation will esteem success here in October vital to success throughout the Union in November; that they will insist upon the choice of that candidate who will most essentially aid us in carrying our State, and that they will resist, with all honorable means, the nomination of any one whose antecedents or present position will tend to make that result in any degree problematical. We believe that they will regard the prestige of a great name, or the most faultless party record, as of no weight, if it be rendered clear that success is jeopardized by the selection of their possessor. The hour is inopportune for the requital of party services or the elevation of party idols. Our first duty is to save the Government; and we mistake the character of those great men who are now prominent for the nomination at New York, if in the spirit of self-sacrifice, they, too, do not say "everything for the cause, nothing for men." The choice of a candidate is not difficult, when an invincible will for the preservation of the Government, a spirit of cordial co-operation for success and a determination to sacrifice our personal preferences to the common good, are brought to the task. The mass of our Democracy are deeply imbued with these sentiments but they regard success here as a vital pre-requisite to final victory, and therefore they insist upon the nomination of one who can assuredly carry Pennsylvania. There are such men, both soldiers and civilians, men of large minds, thoroughly trained in the logic of our governmental system and in the traditions of our party, of spotless reputation, of unblemished party record, and surrounded with the pristige of success. Give us one of these, and our march to victory will be an easy and a triumphant one. Clearfield Republican.

Know-Nothingism Among the Negroes.

A meeting of negroes was held in one of the churches of Richmond during the session of the Radical State Convention last week, and a petition was gotten up and forwarded to General Schofield, requesting him to stop the further naturalization of foreigners in Virginia. Is it not astonishing to see how rapidly the poison of Know-Nothingism has spread among the negroes? They have scarcely been granted the right of suffrage until they desire to deprive foreign-born white citizens of the privilege. That is the natural effect of Radicalism. As a party it conceals its hatred of foreigners for the present, but it rankiess deep in the heart of the organization, and crops out constantly. The negroes of the South have been imbued with it by the Radical carpet-bag adventurers who have gone there from the North. Let the Germans throughout the country be careful to make a note of the action of these Virginia negroes.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

NEWS AND OTHER ITEMS.

Terrible Volcanic Eruption.

Advices from the Sandwich Islands reports the occurrence of one of the most terrific volcanic eruptions, accompanied by earthquakes probably ever recorded. It took place in Hawaii, in the district of Kona, and the valcano is called Mauna Loa. The earthquakes at times were so violent that no one could stand up; immense precipices were leveled to the earth, and a tidal wave from the sea swept over the tops of tall cocoanut trees. Five villages suffered from the visitation, eighty persons being known to have been killed. The mountain while in eruption, vomited forth deep streams of lava, which pushed far out into the sea driving the waters back, agitating them as by a storm. A huge island was thus thrown up and the huge streams of smoke issuing from the crater of the volcano enveloped the surrounding country in partial darkness.

WHAT REAL ESTATE IS EXEMPT FROM TAXATION.—The Legislature has passed a law, exempting the following real estate property from taxation:

SEC. 57. All lands which have been or may hereafter be granted, within this State, to any officers or soldiers of the line of this State, by virtue of any resolution of Congress, or law of this State, as a reward for their services, shall be and are hereby exempted from taxation for and during the life of such officers or soldier respectfully, unless the same shall be transferred or alienced to any other person.

SEC. 58. All churches, meeting-houses or other regular places of stated religious worship, with the ground thereto annexed, for the occupancy and better enjoyment of the same; all burial grounds belonging to any religious congregation, all universities, colleges, academies and school houses, belonging to any county, borough or school district, or incorporated city, erected, endowed or established by virtue of any law of this Commonwealth, with ground thereto annexed, all court houses and jails, be and the same are hereby exempted from all and every county, road city, borough, poor and school tax; and all taxes heretofore assessed on any such property shall not hereafter be collected, but the respective officers, charged with the collection thereof shall and are hereby exonerated from the collection and paying over of the same: Provided, That five acres of land, together with the improvements thereon, attached to all such religious congregations, universities, colleges, academies and school houses, belonging to any county, borough or school district aforesaid, and no more than five acres of land, with the improvements thereon, attached thereto, shall be exempt from taxation as aforesaid.

SEC. 59. It shall be the duty of the several assessors in this Commonwealth to make return of all property now, or which hereafter may be specially exempt by act of Assembly from taxes, in a separate list to the commissioners of the proper county, for which service the said assessor shall receive the same compensation as is allowed for like services in other cases.

DEATH WON'T SAVE YOU.—It has been decided that dying won't save man or woman from the payment of taxes. Assessors are instructed that 'incomes of persons who died after the 31st of December, are taxable, and should be returned by executors, and also all incomes which accrued in 1867, to persons who died within that year. Incomes accruing after deccase should be returned by heirs. Thus it is seen that the insatiate tax-gatherer follows a man in his coffin, sits at the portals of the tomb, plants himself by the side of the grave digger, as he drops the clods upon the mortal remains, and after dogging the carriages of the mourners, stalks home like a spectre, and enters upon his books the expected income the Treasury is to derive therefrom. What a blessing is a public debt!

MILKING COWS BY STEAM.—An exchange says:—"The funniest picture we have seen for a long time, out of a professedly comic newspaper, is that in the last number of the Scientific American, representing the operation of a cow milking machine. The cows stand in a row; attached to each teat is a tube with a close-fitting mouth, and all these tubes communicate with pumps, which are driven by steam or horse power. The cows being thus properly tapped, the pumps are set to work, and the milk drawn from their udders neatly, expeditiously, and with comfort to the animals. Indeed, the editor says, 'the cows soon learn to come to the machine if fed or salted a few times while being milked.' What next?"

TRUE.—Dr. Franklin remarked that a man as often gets two dollars for the one he spends informing his mind, as a dollar laid out in any other way. A man eats a pound of sugar and it is gone and the pleasure he has enjoyed is ended, and the information he gets from a newspaper is treasured up to be enjoyed anew, and to be used whenever occasion or inclination calls for it. A newspaper is not the wisdom of a man, or two men—it is the wisdom of the age, and of past ages too. A family without a newspaper is always behind the times in general information; besides they can never think much or find much to talk about.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

REASONS WHY.

We are enabled to offer superior inducements to purchasers of clothing, to which your attention is respectfully invited.

We have a business experience of more than 25 years, have been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.

We employ sufficient capital to make ALL PURCHASES FOR CASH, which, together with the fact that our large business enables us to buy in large amounts in first hands, thereby saving all profits of jobbers and middlemen, give us advantages in purchasing at the lowest rates, SHARED BY NO HOUSE IN OUR TRADE.

We sell only for cash and having no losses from bad debts to provide for, the paying customer is not TAXED TO HELP PAY THE DEBT OF ANOTHER who does not pay, as is inevitably the case in a business where credit is given.

We employ the best talent in all departments, which, with long experience, enable us to manufacture garments SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT—equalled by few—surpassed by none.

We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market street to 511 Minor street, occupied exclusively by ourselves, also a branch store at 600 Broadway, New York, and keep at all times of MEN'S, YOUTH'S and BOYS' READY-MADE CLOTHING, the largest stock and best assortment in the city, from which any person can be accurately fitted at once, as well, or better, than by garments made to order, our large stock comprising every size of all styles of goods. We have recently added to our previous stock a full assortment of CHILDREN'S GARIBALDI AND OTHER SUITS, equal to any in the city in style, trimming, and make; which are sold at lower prices than have hitherto been known in Philadelphia. They, with all our Boys' and Youth's goods, are kept on the first floor, nearest the front, convenient for ladies. We have also recently opened on our SECOND FLOOR A CUSTOM DEPARTMENT for the display of a choice selection of Foreign and Domestic Fabrics in the piece, which will be MADE UP TO ORDER, in the best style, by competent and skillful cutters and workmen. The advantage of dealing with a CASH HOUSE will be especially apparent in this department, upon a comparison of prices.

We guarantee our prices lower than the lowest elsewhere and also guarantee full satisfaction to every purchaser, and request, that should any cause of dissatisfaction exist with a purchase made, it may be reported to us, pledging ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money, or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case. (Samples and prices sent by mail when desired.)

An examination of our stock respectfully requested and your patronage, if the above statement of facts be satisfactorily demonstrated.

A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleedings of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues; and he can ascribe the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his medicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire extinction of all hope of recovery, together with a want of confidence in all others induced him to hazard the experiment To those suffering with any disease of the Lungs he proffers a treatment he confidently believes will eradicate the disease. Medicine sent by express. Send for a circular or call on

EDS. GAZETTE:—A Furnace has been located at Riddlesburg, in the Broad Top Coal Field and 70 acres of land purchased for its use. The company, a New York one, is composed of gentlemen who have had much experience in iron making and abundant capital. A single furnace will be erected at present, 14 feet base and 60 feet high; should it prove successful, others will be added. Work will be commenced on it in a week or ten days and will be prosecuted with vigor until completed. The whole will cost about $60,000, when completed. It is now contemplated to have this furnace in blast this fall. BROAD TOP.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.—The citizens of Schellsburg have at last concluded to build a new public school house.—We are glad to learn this, as the old house has become so dilapidated as to render it unfit for use. We hope that the new building will be an ornament to the beautiful village, as we know it will be a monument of their love for the diffusion of useful knowledge.

PARTRIDGES.—The last Legislature passed a supplement to the Game law of 1858, fixing the period in which partridges may be shot, between the 20th of October and 20th of December, and by the same act fixed the penalty for shooting them at any other period at $25. Our sportsmen will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

ANTIDOTE FOR POISON.—A poison of any degree of potency, which has been swallowed intentionally or by accident, may be rendered almost instantaneously harmless, by swallowing two gills of sweet oil. An individual with a very strong constitution should take twice the quantity. The oil will neutralize every form of vegetable or mineral poison with which the physicians are acquainted.

WE are pained to learn of the sudden death of our friend, Archibald Perdew, Esq., of Bean's cove. He was a quiet, useful citizen, and the community in which he lived will mourn his loss.

THE WORLD'S MOWER AND REAPER.

FARMERS, look to your interest, and examine the World before purchasing any other. Its Gearing is cut out of solid iron and runs with the precision of clock-work. Its iron case encloses the works and protects them from sand, grass, rain, rust, &c. It will last a lifetime, and like your watch or clock, which runs from year to year without variation or breakage, this wonderful machine will cut your harvest without any of the annoyances and expense attending the use of cast machines. Call and examine for yourselves. SAM'L SHUCK, Bedford, agent for Bedford and Fulton counties.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS.—We have placed our books and accounts in the hands of John P. Reed, Esq., of this place, for collection. All accounts for subscription for the year ending August 1, 1868, remaining unpaid, are included in the bills which Mr. Reed is authorized to collect. We have been compelled to resort to this course in order to obtain a settlement of our accounts. We have too much to do to attend to making out bills, and we are tired of dunning. Money we must have, as we have many debts to pay, and we desire to act honestly with our creditors. Therefore, we ask all to pay Mr. Reed, who can, and those who cannot, we ask to call and settle. If there is any thing in their accounts by which they consider themselves aggrieved, let them call on us, and we will make all right that is not right. Friends, let us have the old scores wiped out, and begin anew

PROSPECTUS
1868. "THE AGE," 1868
"THE AGE."
A Democratic Daily and Weekly Journal in Philadelphia.
The attention of the Democrats and Conservative-citizens of the country is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound political doctrines should command the earnest attention of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. The events of the past political year are full of significance. The uprising of The People in opposition to the destructive policy of Radicalism, clearly shows that the masses are determined to restore again to power the great Democratic party, every page of whose history is filled with the glory and prosperity of our common country. No more effectual method for presenting the Truth can be devised, than in circulating Democratic journals. It is the intention of the Proprietors of The Age to make it, in every way worthy of the support and confidence that have heretofore been extended to it. Improvements are contemplated in every department, and no pains or expense will be spared to keep it in the front rank of American journalism.
The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotation, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters, and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance. Besides Special Telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and also the Associated Press dispatches received by the Atlantic Cable; and the news from all parts of Europe brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from whatever point the steamer first touches.
The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first-class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Family Circle, and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

☞ Send for descriptive circular and price list.
The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. |The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON, Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book, &c.
The world-renowned author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of Self-Abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. 1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interst, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
